

Two Representative Climate Papers

1. 2023-05-25 CLIMATE ASSESSMENT

<https://melconway.com/Home/pdf/ClimateAssessment.pdf>

Comments on the latest UN IPCC report, with my assessment of its hidden consequences. The truth is in there, but it's in the fine print hidden by aspirational/consensus language in the headlines. The experts know what's happening, but the UN consensus process hardly allows them to say it.

2. 2021-10-13 COMMON BELIEFS AND UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCES

<https://melconway.com/Home/pdf/ZipfConsequences.pdf>

A systems-based argument that major public corporations are legally compelled to grow, with direct (and tragic) environmental consequences.

People to follow on Twitter/X (caution: requires a Twitter/X account):

Ben See (Twitter: @ClimateBen)

Lyle Lewis (Twitter: @Race2Extinct)

Nathan John Hagens (Twitter: @NJHagens)